

THE OWOSSO TIMES

EDMUND O. DEWEY, EDITOR.

OWOSSO, MICH., SEPT. 29, 1911.

Lived in County 50 Years.

William Lyon, 76, died at his home 627 Genwood avenue, at 1:20 Monday afternoon, after an illness of one year, though he had been seriously ill but a week. Funeral services will be held Wednesday at one o'clock from the house, Rev. Mr. Watson officiating, and interment will take place at Oak Hill.

Mr. Lyon is survived by a widow and seven children: Mrs. Lina Hauer and Mrs. Mary Atkinson, of Gladwin county; Mrs. Fannie Jordan of Flushing; Frederick Lyon of Juddville; Henry, George and Peter Lyon of Owosso.

Mr. Lyon had lived in the county for half a century, most of the time on his farm near Juddville, but for the last 18 years in Owosso. He belonged to the Odd Fellows at Juddville.

Owosso Pioneer Dead.

Mrs. John Bell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie LaClear 918 North Ball street Saturday afternoon after an illness of about one year. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon, from the home, Rev. George Laughton officiating. Interment will take place at Oak Hill by the side of Mr. Bell who died 15 years ago.

Mrs. Bell was born in England in 1825. She came to America when a young girl, and was two months in crossing the ocean in a sailboat. In 1850 the family moved from New York state to Michigan, and traveled by ox-team. After living for nine years at Pontiac, Mrs. Bell came to Owosso. When first married, she and Mr. Bell lived in an old log house that stood near the northwest corner of Exchange and Ball streets—streets that were then but narrow, swampy trails leading into the surrounding woods.

For 47 years, Mrs. Bell had lived in the house where she died. When she moved there, practically all of the north of King street was dense forest.

Mrs. Bell was never sick a day until a year ago, and enjoyed very much working in her large garden, which she made to bloom with flowers and fine vegetables. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. LaClear and Mrs. W. E. Munroe, who also lives here, two brothers, John Parkinson of Pontiac and Charles Parkinson of Fremont, and one sister living in New York state. Besides, she leaves 13 living grand children and 29 great-grandchildren.

HORSE THIEVES ARE BUSY

Indiana Gang Successfully Operating Along Border.

Kalamazoo, Mich., Sept. 26. — Two horses belonging to farmers were stolen in this city. One horse was taken from the sheds where it had been hitched and another was stolen off the street. Officers have been unable to secure any clue to the thieves. For the last year horse stealing has been one of the biggest crimes officers have had to contend with in this part of the state. It is positively known, declares Sheriff A. L. Campbell, that a gang of thieves, living in Indiana, is operating successfully in Michigan. Horses are stolen in this section and quickly driven across the line, where all trace of the animals is lost. The two horses stolen make nearly twenty that have been taken in Kalamazoo county during the last year. Not a single arrest has been made on a charge of horse stealing.

FOUND DEAD IN HIS ROOM

Supposed Leoni Man Dies Suddenly in Jackson Hotel.

Jackson, Mich., Sept. 26. — A man about sixty years old was found dead in his room at the Arlington house. The landlady states that she heard a noise like a person falling upon the floor and on investigation found the man upon the floor lifeless.

The coroner found a letter in the dead man's coat pocket addressed to "Fred A. Lyons, Leoni, Mich." and signed "Persons." The letter is thought to have been written by a son living in Lansing. It is said the man had been on a spree and the coroner is of the opinion that this had something to do with his death. An inquest will be held.

Are endorsed by thousands. C. S. Clark, W. Main St., Durand, Mich., says: "I hold a high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and feel that they are worthy of the strongest recommendation I can give them. Some two years ago our son was greatly troubled with a weakness of the kidneys. The kidney secretions were unnatural, passed too frequently and contained sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended for such difficulties that I finally procured a supply. They went at once to the seat of the trouble and the contents of one box was all that was required to make the boy well."

Mr. Clark gave the above statement on December 7, 1906, and on March 16, 1909, he said: "I am pleased to verify my former testimonial regarding Doan's Kidney Pills. You are at liberty to repeat any one to me who desires to know about Doan's Kidney Pills."

NATIVES KILL ENSIGN

Soldier from Illinois and One from Missouri Hurt.

Brush with Natives on Philippine Is. and Results Fatally for Ensign Charles E. Hovey.

Washington, Sept. 26. — In a clash with natives on the island of Basilan, in the southern part of the Philippines, Ensign Charles E. Hovey of Portsmouth, N. H., on duty on board the gunboat Pampanga, was killed and three enlisted men were injured. Hovey had been in the navy only about eight years. The wounded are: John H. Catherwood of Springfield, Ill., ordinary seaman, severely; F. H. McGuire of Gordonville, Mo., hospital apprentice, slightly; George F. Henrichon of Hartford, Conn., machinist's mate, slightly injured.

The tragedy was reported to the navy department by Lieutenant John W. Schoenfeld, commanding officer of the gunboat Sirois, which is supposed to be cruising with the Pampanga. No details were given.

A Bean Field Experiment.

If by an improved method of treatment and culture not involving any extra expense, one can thereby increase the yield and quality, or both, of some particular crop then that fact should be generally known among the farming class. While the following may not be new I am confident that it is not generally observed and also that it has or will add an extra profit above that usually realized by me in ordinary seasons from my bean crop and believe others may profit by a similar culture of the bean.

This section is largely given up to sugar beet culture and necessarily up-to-date beet implements for drilling, cultivating, etc., are in evidence on every farm growing them. Among these tools there is a very successful drill for sowing beet seed. This drill has four hoes and is adjustable for 18 in. to 28 in. rows, and while not in any wise recommended by its makers as a bean drill, still, on looking one over that a neighbor owned I came to the conclusion that it would handle beans, and therefore readily got it for a trial.

The field to be sown was 15 acres and fitted in very good shape, and immediately after a shower this lot was drilled by the above machine to 24 instead of the usual 28-in. rows. A row, therefore, in every but was gained over the 28-in. way of drilling. The seed after a few rods of drilling and measuring was distributed at the rate of 14 bu. per acre. This is a very heavy seeding for beans, but bear in mind, there are many extra rows in this field, and as a consequence additional seed is required. This drill is equipped with runners or shoes followed by light individual wheel rollers for compacting the soil on either side of each row over the seed and drills to a depth of from one to two inches only.

These beans came splendidly, were uniform and no breaks were in any rows; they received two cultivations and commenced to pod when cultivation ceased. Although we have had the driest season in many years, they hang with well-filled or with nearly all pods filled at this date, (August 21). It is evident that being spaced in narrow rows the bean vines would soon cover and shade the soil (my direct object) which they did. Shaded ground or soil covered with mulch or vines holds moisture to a remarkable degree, and although the growing vines consume vast amounts of moisture I am convinced that the shade they afford the contiguous soil beneath them more than compensates for the extra moisture consumed by the additional crowding of the rows.

The rows are just right for the ordinary puller to work in, as the rows will strike the knives about midway, thus insuring uniform clean pulling. Thorough cultivation can be given either by the two-row, one-horse cultivator, fitted with weed knives, or the ordinary two-horse cultivator, shut close. A trial is worthy the attention of all bean growers at least, as I am confident the yield may be increased.—G. A. Randall in Michigan Farmer.

The latest orders issued from the adjutant general's office, Lansing, announce that Oscar J. Reynolds, formerly sergeant-major of the Third Infantry, has been commissioned second lieutenant of Company H Third Infantry, of this city.

William S. King of East Exchange street has resigned his position as traveling salesman for the Owosso Casket Co., and has a similar place with the Cleveland Burial Casket Company. Capt. Fred E. Van Dyne, who has been with the local company for several years, will succeed Mr. King, taking part of the latter's territory in Michigan, including Detroit, and part of Ohio. Capt. Van Dyne's many friends congratulate him upon his advancement.

A farewell surprise party was given in honor of Frank C. Mier at his home, 416 Prindle street, Monday evening. Mr. Mier leaves Thursday evening for La Junta, Cal., where he has accepted a position. Progressive piano and various other games were played. John Doyle, Florence King, Freda Harnisch and Mario Perry won the prizes at piano. Refreshments were served. Mr. Mier was presented with a handsome signet ring. All wish him success in his new venture. He was color-sergeant of the Third Infantry, and will be greatly missed by his military friends about the state as well as in this city.

Woman's Danger Periods Made Safe

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The Change of Life is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and neglect of health at this time invites disease.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will so successfully carry women through this trying period as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Here is proof:

Natick, Mass.,—"I cannot express what I went through during the Change of Life before I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in such a nervous condition I could not keep still. My limbs were cold. I had creepy sensations and could not sleep nights. I was finally told by two physicians that I had a tumor.

"I read one day of the wonderful cures made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and decided to try it, and it has made me a well woman. My neighbors and friends declare it has worked a miracle for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is worth its weight in gold for women during this period of life. If it will help others you may publish this letter."—Mrs. Nathan B. Groaton, 51 No. Main St., Natick, Mass.

ANOTHER SIMILAR CASE.

Cornwallville, N. Y.,—"I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for some time for Change of Life, nervousness, and a fibroid growth. "Two doctors advised me to go to the hospital, but one day while I was away visiting, I met a woman who told me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and I know it helped me wonderfully. I am very thankful that I was told to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. Wm. Boughton, Cornwallville, N. Y., Greene Co.

The makers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have thousands of such letters as those above—they tell the truth, else they could not have been obtained for love or money. This medicine is no stranger—it has stood the test for years.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
